

International Trumpet Guild®

The International Trumpet Guild is an organization formed in 1974 to promote communication among trumpet players around the world and to improve the artistic level of performance, teaching, and literature associated with the trumpet.

Every year, ITG Members receive: four ITG Journals (often over 100 pages), at least one piece of music and a recording, discounted registration for the annual ITG Conference, and unlimited access to the ITG Website. Through this valuable resource, members have full online access to the complete archives of the ITG Journal, as well as other ITG publications from 1975 to the present, including over 60 pieces of sheet music. Free electronic memberships are now available to those of age 17 and under, and print memberships are available to the same age group at a reduced rate.
